Hi Andrea,

[REDACTED]

I watched several hours of "It's Your Game" and was very unhappy with a lot of what I saw. For one thing, there was little emphasis on the role of the parents, community, family, teachers, other adult role models, church, etc. It was much too detailed for that age. I am glad you ruled it out when a much better option is available.

Thank you for your service on the SHAC committee; I know it's a hard job!
